Ms. Hazel J. Nicholson
1765 Silverado Trail
Napa, California 94558

Dear Ms. Nicholson:

I want to thank you very much for your nice letter of 24 August 1990 re the GILLIAMS. I apologize for taking so long to thank you for this letter but I have been so busy I just didn't get around to it.

I was particularly pleased to get your letter because I have just started researching the GILLIAMS and I do not know very much about them. In fact, I have not been able to obtain documentation that Mary, wife of James Waldrop who died in 1799 in Newberry County, South Carolina, was a daughter of William Gilliam who died in 1789 in Newberry County, South Carolina. The late George Leland Summer who did considerable research on a lot of the people who lived in Newberry County, South Carolina, seemed to think she was, but of course that is not documentation.

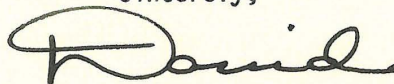

When researching the WALDROPS of Granville County, North Carolina, I came across a William Gilliam and I jumped to the conclusion (bad practice) that he was the William Gilliam who moved to Newberry County, South Carolina, and died there in 1789. After receiving your letter I realize that although the William Gilliam who died in Newberry County, South Carolina, may have lived in Granville County, North Carolina, I will have to do a lot more research to prove that he did.

Someone wrote me that she thought the William Gilliam who died in Newberry County, South Carolina, was the William Gilliam who lived in Frederick County, Virginia, around 1750, or so. Although certain things seem to indicate that this is true, certain other things seem to indicate that the William Gilliam of Frederick County, Virginia, was the one who died around 1781 in Granville County, North Carolina. It certainly makes things confusing when so many members of a family had the same given name.

I am enclosing some GILLIAM data in which you might be interested. No doubt you have a lot of this information but perhaps a little of it will be new to you.

Thank you again for your thoughtful letter.

Sincerely,

David P. Smith
